Amazing views!

30 Dec 2018

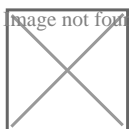

These cable cars are really spectacular. The station is very modern and clean, impressive in itself. But the ride across to the island is amazing, great views and really clean and comfortable carriages. The island itself is not quite ready at the time of our visit but you can clearly see the vision and this will be a major attraction for years to come. I can imagine this will get very busy once the island is ready but for now I was amazed how quiet it was. No waiting at all and very cheap for what you get. Well worth a visit!

Amazing view

Recently opened cable car is one of the few decent sites to visit on Phu Quoc. The cable cars run continuously and often you will be the only person in a car. The architectural style of the building of the newly constructed building adds to the cable car experience.

Breath taking views fantastic ride, views beautiful, I get the feeling its going to turn into a theme park! such a shame, get there quick before it's spoilt.

Cable Car To Phu Quoc

27 Dec 2018

The cable car travels over three islands finishing on a delightful public beach with a large bar/ restaurant. Travel time is 25 mins.each way.

Important, when you get off wait at exit for tuk tuk to take you to the beach, This is included in your ticket price. If not walk for 30 mins in the heat. Payment in local currency only. Allow at least two hours there and back

The cable car is the longest in the world

26 Dec 2018

The place is still in development, but what is ready is very nice, clean, good organization and service. Unfortunately, we hit the cloudy day and had limited visibility in advance. You can borrow kayaks on site for free. Through a transparent don we saw a place where coral reefs began to grow and we could later swim with a mask there. In a few years there should be more fish and bigger reefs
