Luxurious

12 Jun 2019

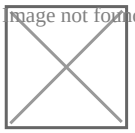

Staff were excellent, compared and matched, they were treated as like royalty. The boat was beautiful and clean, loved the old style. Very well organized tour, felt like I saw a lot of Halong but also had plenty of time to relax. Food was okay.

Make new friends

04 Oct 2018

We booked the two night three day cruise at the end of September 2018. Most people only booked for the one night which is too short to really enjoy the scenery and activities such as kayaking, swimming and caving touring. There were a number of small groups on board from around the world on our cruise. At the first night dinner, a number of us got together and over a few drinks had a wonderful time swapping our holiday stories. We have made some wonderful new friends out of the cruise. Although the bay was a bit hazy on the first day due to burn offs in the area, by the second day most of the smoke had blown away. We had room 208 which is a deluxe suite with its own forward facing balcony. If you book this cruise (which I really recommend) - hang the expense and book this cabin. It absolutely is worth the extra money.

2 night 3 day cruise on Pelican QN6900

01 Sep 2018

Took a 2 night cruise as part of a Hanoi trip for my wife, mother and partner. The optional transfer vehicle was on time and driven very safely - unusual for Vietnam as I know from many previous visits, so well worth the $25USD return fee per person.We had booked the 2 front rooms on the middle deck so forward facing with our own private balconies, which made it easy to enjoy our homemade 'sundowner' beverages each day. The best rooms for sure.The boat was excellent - very clean and staff extremely helpful and friendly. Food was good - some western and some local. Breakfast was a fine selection and enough for several re-visits. Sightseeing trips were good, although you needed to be sure footed with decent footwear for a couple of them. Lifejackets during all smaller boat transfers which was pleasing to see. Halong Bay is absolutely spectacular, even if it is a bit busy with the sea traffic. Pelican is one of the best providers out there. We will visit again and enjoy their hospitality. Thanks to the onboard team!!

I went on this cruise with a friend and we had a great time from beginning to end. The staff are very welcoming and the food was absolutely amazing! The staff were able to accommodate dietary restrictions and the activities on and off board were a great inclusion. The room was immaculate and spacious with lovely views. I would definitely cruise again!

We had 3 days 2 nights cruise, liked everything, staff is very friendly and helpful, dishes in the restaurant are delicious, organization is on a high level!Not big minus that prices for drinks are a bit overrated, but at the happy hours it's fine. Thanks to all, highly recommended!!
