We loved the crews hospitality on board the boat. They made us feel right at h ome. We are vegetarians and have special diet needs. They took really good care of us and made sure we had a lot of options to choose from. Tony was an excellent tour guide who went above and beyond in making sure everyone got the most out of their trip. He had great local knowledge, great communication skills and was always willing to help. Highly recommended amazing trip

Halong Bay was probably the best experience we had in Vietnam due to several reasons. Our boat and room were really nice and clean , good weather, kayaking, amazing scenery, but mostly because of our tour guide Vu. His English skills are good, he has extensive knowledge of history, culture and was able to answer our of our questions. Besides going extra lengths to entertain the guests, he managed to create a personal connection and provide us with real, genuine perspective to local living, pains and joys of Vietnamese culture. Witty, respectful, honest, friendly - hands down, Vu is the best tour guide we had.

Awesome Halong bay 2 days 1 night on cruise

26 Oct 2019

We did the trip to Ha Long bay on the Royal Palace Cruise with option 2 days 1 night on board. Tour guide speaks excellent English and is very entertaining and gives details about the whole place! The staff on this cruise is also Excellent, very attentive and nice and welcoming. We felt really good about it. The meals were served as 5 course menus and we had a buffet for lunch where the cook made omlettes in front of you and also pho. Another good thing was that the cook replaces dishes to fit in with your diet if you need that. All of the food tasted delicious and fresh. We made two trips: one to a fishermen's village with rowing boats and on the next day to a cave and small beach. Good thing about the cave was that we visited it earlier than other groups, so we had the cave for our group and just after we finished a lot of other tourists went in. All in all there was also enough time to relax, especially on the beautiful sunroof! I Would definitely recommend the signature cruise and its staff !
