Phong Nha and Paradise caves

03 Apr 2019

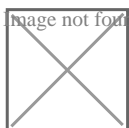

Phong Nha cave and Paradise cave are two biggest caves I had came in my life. The stalactites inside the cave were so beautiful. I preferred the landscape in Phong Nha cave more, it was drier, I tried to scream in the cave, wow the sound was so loud back.

Great guide

Our guide told that there are many caves in Phong Nha-Ke Bang, but we just visited two among them. They were both beautiful and large. Tour guide was so fun and he loved to joke to us. What an interesting trip!!!

Worth penny tour!!!!

One day tour with many beautiful places and interesting activities. This was the first solo trip in my life ever, so I prepared so carefully for this trip. The tour was so much of fun. Worth the money!!!

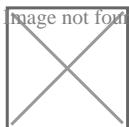

Breathtaking!

I almost skipped caves all together, since I've seen my share of caves. I am sooo happy I went to Paradise Cave My Apple heart health clocked 28 floors up and close to 10000 steps, so it's not suited for the physically impaired. But if you are fit it's sooo worth the effort. The lighting is done very tastefully in white light, highlighting the dimensions of the incredible stalactite and stalagmite formations that took thousands of years to grow. A sturdy boardwalk leads 1 km deep into the cavernous cave. The temperature was very pleasant and cool, no thick jackets necessary.

Wonderful caves!

Both caves are amazing! We got a great time inside the cave, it was different compared to other caves we had seen before. The more we went inside, the larger the caves were. There was a large lake inside the cave, we were so surprised about that. Worth a try!!
