Good place to visit with your friends

08 Sep 2018

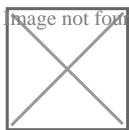

I came with my classmates for a school trip this summer and we spent 3 days 2 nights here. It was an eye opening experience even for us Vietnamese, since we got to learn more about the culture of the Thai (not people from Thailand) and Muong minority group, something that is underrepresented where I live. One of the thing that I like the most is probably staying in bungalow with my friends and i would recommend this to anyone.

Unforgettable Mai Chau

Quiet countryside with villagers of both Viet and Thai ethnic groups. Simple yet tasty food from fresh local farm produce

Beautiful valley, delicious pork

with my friends. We sang and danced together at the campfire. Dressed like ethnic minority girls and took wonderful pictures. A must thing to do here is to try delicious grilled pork. you won't regret.
