Abundant memories

28 Jul 2017

This is a wonderful trip which was both varied and interesting, allowing you to see a lot of the scenery and culture of the countries visited. I would encourage anyone to take this trip and if you have a month continue into Cambodia (we had already been so didn't do this part). The highlights for us were the cruise down the Mekong River and boat trip in Halong Bay which were truly wonderful. Laos in particular is the most stunning country and I would recommend you visit before it becomes too touristy. Travelling with a group was fun but also there was time to explore on your own.
