We went on a boat trip south to the islands called white clouds and the island is horizontal with the desire to see the coral and this is my passion, what we get The experience is beyond our expectations before we participated in the very nice coral trip here and especially here the blue water is very clear and can see very clearly at the bottom despite the deep water level about 5 meters. And with a lot of numbers and types of fish, we are very lucky to catch a lot of fish, although the fish size is not very big but for amateurs like me it is very encouraging

Best Trip To Phu Quoc

This is a well organise trip. My whole family enjoyed it. We recommend to others if you have no idea where to go in Ph Quoc. Price is reasonable too.

Don't fish under a full moon!

05 Jan 2016

The main source of fresh food for the locals comes from the sea. We went out (14) of us in a fishing boat to catch Squid and local Sea Bass. We had a great laugh and watched the most beautiful sunset however, we were told by the captain that due to there being a full moon he fish were unlikely to bite! He was not wrong! A great way to see the sun set and spend 3-4 hours between 4.30pm and 8.30pm.

We spend weekend on Phu Quoc island and decided to have some advantage with regard to fishing and snorkeling. Had only very positive feelings. Guide was just in time next to our reception. We drove to small Harbor where our journey started from. Boat stopped not far away from Cambodia and we started fishing. It was easy task and we managed to caught many different types of fish in just 30 minutes. Afterwards we had a stop over close to small island where we went snorkeling with equipment provide by trip company. It is a very nice area with fantastic underwater world. At the end we had a lunch with seafood including crabs (we ordered it separately) and other Asian and Vietnamese food. Good job done! We really enjoyed it.
